Day 3 – Sat Aug 29 (Camino Day 1)

- Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port → Roncesvalles (~25 km / 15.5 mi) — the Napoleon Route over the Pyrenees.
 - Route highlights: steep climb out of SJPP past Refuge Orisson; the Virgin of Biakorri statue; the high ridge crossing the France–Spain border with sweeping Pyrenees views; descent through beech forest at Col de Lepoeder into Roncesvalles’ Collegiate Church and monastery.
- Show QR code / passport at check-in. Albergue closes at 22:00; reservation held until 19:00 unless later arrival is flagged.
- Dinner seating 20:30.
- Overnight: Albergue de Peregrinos de Orreaga-Roncesvalles (Localizador AL08344890).

 Caution

This is the hardest and most exposed day of the entire Camino (~1,200 m climb, few bailout points), done one day after a transatlantic flight and jet lag. Start at first light. Check weather the night before — in fog, high wind, or rain, take the lower Valcarlos route instead (~19 km, road-based, far less exposure); ask at the SJPP pilgrim office. Carry rain layer, poles, and food/water since services on the Napoleon route are minimal.

Days 4–14 – Aug 30 to Sep 9 (Camino Francés – Roncesvalles to Burgos)

- Day 4 (Aug 30): Roncesvalles → Zubiri (~21.5 km / 13.4 mi)
 - Route highlights: descent through Auritz/Burguete (the village where Hemingway stayed and wrote of trout fishing in The Sun Also Rises); Roncesvalles pass and Erro valley beech forest; Alto de Erro; drop into Zubiri over the medieval Puente de la Rabia.
 - Overnight: Albergue El Palo de Avellano (Zubiri) — Reserva #1-4435804
- Day 5 (Aug 31): Zubiri → Pamplona (~20.4 km / 12.7 mi)
 - Route highlights: riverside path along the Río Arga; Larrasoaña; the Romanesque Trinidad de Arre bridge marking the entry into greater Pamplona; Pamplona's old town, Plaza del Castillo, and the Gothic cathedral.
- Day 6 (Sep 1): Pamplona → Puente la Reina (~23.8 km / 14.8 mi)
 - Route highlights: Alto del Perdón ridge — wind turbines and the famous silhouette-of-pilgrims sculpture with panoramic views over Navarra; Uterga and Muruzábal; Puente la Reina's iconic 11th-century Romanesque bridge, where the Camino Francés and Camino Aragonés merge.
- Day 7 (Sep 2): Puente la Reina → Estella (~21.5 km / 13.4 mi)
 - Route highlights: hilltop medieval village of Cirauqui with a stretch of original Roman road below it; Lorca and Villatuerta; Estella/Lizarra's Palacio de los Reyes de Navarra and the church of San Pedro de la Rúa.
- Day 8 (Sep 3): Estella → Los Arcos (~21.3 km / 13.2 mi)
 - Route highlights: Bodegas Irache's free pilgrim wine fountain (Fuente del Vino) right on the trail; Monasterio de Irache; Villamayor de Monjardín beneath its hilltop castle ruins; Los Arcos and the ornate church of Santa María.
- Day 9 (Sep 4): Los Arcos → Logroño (~27.5 km / 17.1 mi) — long and largely shadeless through vineyard country; start at dawn.

- Route highlights: Sansol and Torres del Río’s octagonal, Templar-linked Church of the Holy Sepulchre; crossing from Navarra into La Rioja; Viana’s old town; entering Logroño — Rioja’s wine capital — over the Puente de Piedra and into the Calle Laurel tapas district.
- Day 10 (Sep 5): Logroño → Nájera (~29 km / 18.0 mi) — longest stage of the trip, same exposed terrain; start at dawn, carry extra water.
 - Route highlights: Parque de la Grajera reservoir just outside Logroño; Navarrete’s vineyards and pottery tradition; Nájera’s cliffside setting above the Río Najerilla and the royal pantheon in the Monasterio de Santa María la Real.
- Day 11 (Sep 6): Nájera → Santo Domingo de la Calzada (~21 km / 13.0 mi)
 - Route highlights: Azofra and Cirueña; Santo Domingo de la Calzada’s cathedral, famous for keeping a live rooster and hen inside in honor of the town’s “hanged pilgrim” legend.
- Day 12 (Sep 7): Santo Domingo de la Calzada → Belorado (~22.8 km / 14.2 mi)
 - Route highlights: hilltop Grañón with views back over the Rioja plain; crossing from La Rioja into Castilla y León near Redecilla del Camino; Vitoria de Rioja, birthplace of Santo Domingo; Belorado’s old quarter and nearby cave dwellings.
- Day 13 (Sep 8): Belorado → San Juan de Ortega (~23.7 km / 14.7 mi)
 - Route highlights: Villafranca Montes de Oca, the last village before a long climb into the Montes de Oca oak and pine forest (historically the most dangerous stretch of the Camino for robbers); the remote Romanesque monastery at San Juan de Ortega, known for a twice-yearly light phenomenon illuminating a capital inside the church at the equinoxes.
- Day 14 (Sep 9): San Juan de Ortega → Burgos (~25.8 km / 16.0 mi)
